

Hazard identification and maternity protection

Summary of information relating to hazard identification:

Faculty, department, service
Collaborator (surname, first name, phone, e-mail) Term date
Function, brief description of the work station
Line manager (surname, first name, phone, e-mail)
Presumption of danger according to the following checklist	<input type="checkbox"/> NO <input type="checkbox"/> YES

Date of hazard identification:

Persons involved in hazard identification:

Hazard identification and maternity protection

Maternity protection: Checklist for hazard identification

For female administrative staff, points 1 to 10 and 28 to 31 should be considered as a priority.

Legal bases	Check the corresponding answer for each item	YES	Perhaps	NO	Measures already taken or remarks made
Art. 7 OProMa	Moving heavy loads
	1.	The employee must regularly move loads over 5 kg or operate levers or cranks corresponding to a load over 5 kg on a regular basis (regularly: more than once an hour)
	2.	The employee must occasionally move loads of more than 10 kg or operate levers or cranks corresponding to a load of more than 10 kg (Occasionally: max 1 to 2 times a day)
Art. 8 OProMa	Work exposed to cold, heat or humidity
	3.	The employee works indoors at ambient temperatures below -5°C
	4.	The employee works indoors at ambient temperatures above +28°C
	5.	The employee works at temperatures below 15°C without hot drinks being available
	6.	The employee works at temperatures between 5°C and 10°C without an outfit adapted to the thermal situation and the activity performed being made available
	7.	The employee works in an environment with high humidity

Hazard identification and maternity protection

Legal bases	Check the corresponding answer for each item	YES	Perhaps	NO	Measures already taken or remarks made
Art. 9 OProMa	Movements and postures leading to early fatigue
	8.	The employee must regularly be in extension (high storage, high cleaning)
	9.	The employee must regularly bend, bend, bend or squat (ground work or work close to the ground)
	10.	The employee works in a static position without the possibility of movement
Art. 10 OProMa	Microorganisms
	12.	The employee works in contact with live animals (specify which ones)
	13.	The employee works in contact with dead animals (specify which ones)
	14.	The employee works with cell lines (specify which ones)
	15.	The employee works or enters premises where unspecified micro-organisms are handled
	16.	The employee works or enters P1 or P2 laboratories (please provide a list of the microorganisms used)
	17.	The employee works or enters P3 laboratories
Art. 11 OProMa	Noise exposure activities
	19.	The employee is exposed to a very noisy environment

Hazard identification and maternity protection

Legal bases	Check the corresponding answer for each item	YES	Perhaps	NO	Measures already taken or remarks made
Art. 12 OProMa	Activities exposed to the effects of ionizing and non-ionizing radiation
	20.	The employee is exposed to ionizing radiation (e.g., radioactive isotopes, X-rays, gamma rays, some UV rays, accelerators, radiology, etc.). Open and closed sources)
	21.	The employee is exposed to non-ionizing radiation (e. g. electric, magnetic or electromagnetic fields, microwaves, ultraviolet, induction equipment, high density electronic equipment, etc.)
Art. 13 OProMa	Activities exposing to the effects of hazardous chemicals
	22.	The employee works with or is exposed to chemicals or substances (please attach a list of substances handled)
Art. 14 and 16 OProMa Art. 60 and 61 OLT1	Other grounds for prohibition
	23.	The employee works in a hyperbaric environment (overpressure)
	24.	The employee works in an oxygen-depleted environment
	25.	The employee's work rhythm is dictated by a machine and cannot be adjusted
	26.	The employee works in the evening or at night (8pm-6am)
	27.	The employee works in a team rotation system (e. g. 3 x 8h00)
	28.	The employee is likely to work more than 9:00 a.m. per day
	29.	The employee is likely to work overtime (works more than the agreed regular hours)
	30.	The majority of the employee works standing upright
Art. 64, para. 1 OLT1	Other tasks considered difficult by the employee
	31.	The employee performs any other task that is difficult for her or that could become difficult during pregnancy				